Comments

“ My heartfelt sympathy to all the family. When he and his wife lived near Fries, they walked most every day to Star Market and several times I stopped to give them a life. He was a joy to talk to and knowing him made my life richer. He suffered a lot but rarely heard him complain, if any at all. God bless the family. Doug Turner

“ Having know Mr. Waller for only a few months, he brought a lot of joy and laughter to our lives. He was a kind and gentle man with whom we enjoyed many happy and heartwarming conversations. Despite his many medical problems, he was a very content man surrounded by the love of his devoted wife Wilma and his loving daughters Linda and Tina. He served as a living lesson to each of us that life can still be enjoyed even in the face of adversity and pain. May God richly bless, strengthen, and comfort his loved ones in this hour of sorrow
