“ We have many memories of fun times that we shared with y'all through the years. E.J. and Rocky's friendship went back to their teen years and oh the stories they have told from "back in the day!" That is what we treasure when we think of Rocky. He has always been a wonderful friend. The pictures that you all shared here are precious and show his love for his family and his love for adventure. E.J. was in on cutting off the pant legs while in Montana for snowmobiling--another story from their collection ;) Though this is hard, we pray that God will give each of you strength and comfort now, during the celebration of life service tomorrow and in the days to come. With love,
E.J. and Bitha Rector
